Athletic Achievements:

Kristi was an outstanding basketball player for Coach Frederick. She came to CWU when the women's basketball team was not winning many games. As a Freshman Kristi was awarded the best defensive player award. She was a starter all four years at CWU and an integral reason for the team moving to a winning record and the playoffs. Kristi has a very good work ethic and expected high caliber play from herself and her teammates. She was the floor leader and go to player. 4 year letter winner. Kristi was voted the MVP and Team Captain for two years. She led the team in many statistical categories. Kristi provided a tremendous amount of leadership on the court. She was relied on heavily by both Coach Gary and Mike Frederick.

Professional Accomplishments:

Kristi has been a Police Officer for 23 years. She researched, development and started a K-9 program at the Anacortes PD. After 6 years she transferred to the Redmond Police Department where she wrote a national DOJ grant for Domestic Violence Victims which was awarded to create a formalized comprehensive response to domestic violence and created an advocate position for the PD. Kristi has been promoted to the rank of Commander. Here she oversees the 911 center, Records Division, Community Outreach and all recruiting and hiring practices. She also has management responsibility for a $36 million two year budget. Kristi has received numerous letters of commendation for her outstanding work and has received the following awards: Officer of the year 2005, John Miner Award for Excellence in Community Policing, City Award for outstanding team for the "every 15 minutes" program which was presented at the high school for DUI prevention. Kristi has been selected to attend the FBI National Academy. This is an award with a restricted selection process.
